Junior Membership Information

A Junior Member is a person eighteen (18) years of age or under. Applicants for Junior Membership of the Club must have approval from their parent or guardian (see form overleaf). The applicant's parent or guardian must agree that they will be responsible for the applicant's actions and liabilities. Moreover, the parent or guardian must agree to accept responsibility for the Junior Member's behaviour and wellbeing while on the Society's property and during Society organized activities.

A Junior Member may apply for Intermediate or Senior Membership upon reaching his/her 19th birthday.

Within one year of ceasing to be a Junior Member all dues paid by a Junior Member can be credited toward initiation fees for Intermediate or Senior Membership.

Procedure

Once your application has been received by the Junior Advisor and the Membership Director, it will be reviewed for completeness. Junior dues are set at 25% of the Senior Membership rates. There is no initiation fee. New Junior Members and their parent(s) or guardian(s) will be contacted once the application has been approved.
