

Sailing Temporary Membership Program

As a student of the SNSYC Sail Training Program, or as a parent or grandparent of someone attending the SNSYC Sail Training Program, we would like to offer you an opportunity to use some of the facilities of the Club. We hope that by enjoying some of the benefits of the Club you will think seriously about becoming a SNSYC member.

For a one month period from the commencement of your, or your child/grandchild's class, you will be granted a Sailing Program Temporary Membership which gives you and your guests' access to the newly renovated Dining Room and Lounge. There is no charge for this membership and it is valid anytime the facilities are open, just show your Sailing Program Temporary Membership Card when placing your order. Hours of operation and menus can be found on the Club's website under Bar & Restaurant at snsyc.ca

In order to receive your Sailing Program Temporary Membership card, please fill out the attached application form. All members must agree to the Constitution and Bylaws and to the Sidney North Saanich Club and House rules. Additional information about becoming a new member can be found at snsyc.ca or by contacting Club Manager Brian Taylor at 250-656-4600 or manager@snsyc.ca.

The Sidney North Saanich Yacht Club is a vibrant community overlooking the Gulf Islands and the Salish Sea. We are located on the Saanich Peninsula at the southern end of spectacular Vancouver Island, BC. The Club has about 800 members and operates a reciprocal dock and a full service bar and restaurant as well as a very active and evolving junior program. The club offers a variety of exciting boating and sailing activities, both on and off the water, including a flourishing sail training program for children, youth and adults.

We hope that you enjoy your time exploring the SNSYC and all it has to offer. We'd love to see you become part of our vibrant community!
